

An Evening Gathering

Monthly Japanese Conversation Forum

Meet our special guest Naohisa Inoue, Pro and college-level football trainer. Mr. Inoue will not only tell us about his climb to his current profession, he will give us insight into what happens behind-the-scenes at a football game. This month's conversation hour is sure to deepen your understanding and enjoyment of this classic American pastime!

This will prove to be an entertaining evening for the whole family!

Theme: Behind-the scenes at a football game

Speaker: Mr. Naohisa Inoue

Profile:

Attracted to sports since his youth, Naohisa Inoue played baseball from age 9 all the way to age 22. Realizing that he sustained several injuries that could have been avoided, he was attracted to sports medicine. Thus, he pursued a Bachelors Degree in athletic training at the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana. This path has been difficult, but Mr. Inoue overcame each obstacle, and through his hard work. Mr. Inoue has been able to intern for one year with the Miami Dolphins and attain his current position as a graduate assistant with the University of Kentucky Football Team.

*All are welcome! This program is in Japanese language only, but people of all skill levels are encouraged to join us and learn with us.
